trow Canal, which, according to a private letter just received from a friend, has been recently inspected by our Commissioner. The numerous advantages which must result from the opening of this Canal, are too apparent to need recapitulation at my hands; it is sufficient for me to say that it would be advisable for our men of capital to turn their attention to the cultivation of the beautiful soil that is now lying barren in the neighbourhood of Mittrow. Without pretending to any very great powers of vaticination, I can safely promise them a rich harvest in a few years by their judicious investment of a few thousand Rupees in a little agricultural speculation.

The weather here is again changed. It is not so cold as it was a few days ago, but there is a great deal of sickness now prevailing both in Camp and Town—especially fever. Accounts from Shikarpoor too are very unfavourable—fevers of a very virulent type have been prevalent for more than a fortnight at the station, and during the past week several "have been gathered to their fathers."

ADDRESS OF CONDOLENCE TO THE QUEEN.

AN influential and numerously attended meeting of the Inhabitants of Bombay was held yesterday afternoon in the Town Hall, for the purpose of voting an address of condolence to Her most Gracious Majesty Queen Victoria, on the lamented death of Her Illustrious Consort Prince Albert. The meeting was represented by all classes of the community and consisted of the members and Secretaries of Government, the Judges of the Supreme, Sudder, and Small Cause Courts, civil and military officers, clergymen, lawyers, European and Native merchants, traders, shopkeepers, &c. &c.

The day was a general holiday.

The Sheriff having read the requisition calling the meeting, the Hon'ble H. W. Reeves was called to the Chair in the absence of His Excellency the Governor who was prevented from attending by indisposition.

The Chairman opened the proceedings with a brief address, after which the following resolutions were unanimously adopted :—

I. RESOLUTION.—Proposed by the Lord Bishop of Bombay, seconded by Sir Jamsetjee Jejeebhoy, Bart.,

"That the Inhabitants of this city, in common with the subjects of Her Gracious Majesty Queen Victoria throughout the wide dominions of Her extended empire, view with feelings of deepest sorrow and sympathy the great bereavement which Her Majesty has experienced by the death of His Royal Highness the Prince Consort, so illustrious for his personal virtues and the public benefits conferred by him on the nation, and on other countries, cultivating the arts of peace and seeking the general advancement of the world in social improvement."

II. RESOLUTION.—Proposed by His Excellency Sir W. Mansfield, the Commander-in-Chief, seconded by the Rev. Dr. Wilson,—"That the following Address to the Queen be adopted by this meeting, expressive of the sorrow and sympathy of the Inhabitants of the Presidency of Bombay."

TO THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

"MAY IT PLEASE YOUR MAJESTY.—We, the Inhabitants of the Presidency of Bombay, approach Your Majesty with the deepest sympathy and condolence on the occasion of the heavy visitation with which it has pleased an all-wise Providence to afflict your Majesty and the British Empire, in the removal from this Life of Your Majesty's beloved Consort. While we humbly present to your Majesty the expression of our heartfelt sorrow, we venture to offer at the same time the renewed assurance of our profound and respectful loyalty and devotion.

"Distinguished by his veneration for the ancient constitution of the Realm by his wide spread philanthropy and by the eloquent and never-ceasing support afforded by His Royal Highness to the advancement of learning and to the tasteful cultivation of the Fine Arts and of Manufactures throughout all Your Majesty's Dominions, the late Illustrious Prince Consort adorned his eminent position by the practice of every domestic virtue and of the most varied accomplishments.

"It is the fervent trust of your Majesty's subjects in this Presidency that through the Divine mercy your Majesty will find consolation and support in the gentle influence of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales and of their Royal Highnesses the other members of your Family, for the long years of happiness as well as for your Majesty's health long life and honor."

In seconding this Resolution, Sir Jamsetjee Jejeebhoy, Bart., said :—

Our worthy Chairman and the Lord Bishop have so forcibly and so eloquently introduced to the meeting the object for which we are now assembled that it would be trespassing on your time if I were to attempt any lengthened observations on the Resolution which I have the honor to second. I observe that, at some of the meetings held in various parts of the United Kingdom, similar in their sad purpose to that which has called now us together, the address of condolence to Her Majesty was adopted in solemn silence. How appropriate under the circumstances such a mode of proceeding! How much in harmony with the melancholy occasion! No words of fervid oratory were needed. No bursts of impassioned grief were heard in these assemblies, but, as if their hearts were too full for utterance, these communities, in subdued silence, expressed their sympathy with their beloved Queen on the sad calamity which has overwhelmed Her and Her family. What pathos in this mute eloquence. How significant of the depth of feeling which pervaded these meetings! Indeed, if human sympathy can afford consolation to the wounded spirit in such trying circumstances, it must be soothing to our Sovereign to know that a nation's tears mingle with her own, and that wherever the sad tidings of her bereavement have been carried, there Her loyal and attached subjects of every class and clime have shared in her sorrows, and identified themselves with her grief.

The death of Prince Albert is truly a national calamity, the extent of the loss which the nation has sustained, by his removal, is not to be recalled, well therefore may we, as an influential community raise our voice in accents of mourning, and offer our beloved sovereign our most respectful and unfeigned condolences on her irreparable bereavement.

I am sure also that many prayers will be offered, on behalf of our sovereign, that she may be endowed with fortitude to submit, with calm resignation to the inscrutable decrees of Providence, that God may vouchsafe to Her his Divine aid and guidance in her present trying position, and that the Heir apparent to the Throne may inherit the same discretion and prudence with which his Illustrious and now much lamented Father was so signally gifted.

It would be unbecoming in me to indulge at great length in any personal allusions when addressing such a meeting on an occasion like this, but I may mention that, on my recent visit to England, I received not a few marks of condescending attention from our sovereign, and her distinguished Consort, and I have therefore a melancholy satisfaction in seconding the Resolution which has now been laid before the meeting.

III. RESOLUTION.—Proposed by W. R. Cassels, Esq., seconded by the Grand Master of Bombay,

"That the Address to Her Majesty as adopted by this meeting be at once signed, and do further lie for signature in the Town Hall, till noon of the 27th inst."

IV. Resolution.—Proposed by Commodore Wellesley, C. B., seconded by the Hon'ble Juggonath Sunkersett,

"That His Excellency the Governor be requested to receive the Address and transmit it by the mail leaving on the 27th instant to the Secretary of State for India for presentation to Her Majesty."

In seconding this Resolution, the Hon. Juggonnath Sunkersett said :—

HONORABLE SIR AND GENTLEMEN,—In seconding the resolution which has just been moved I beg to say a few words.

The cause of our meeting here as has already been so forcibly stated by our worthy chairman and the Honorable gentlemen who have preceded me is one of a very sad, I must say most sorrowful nature, and I am sure I only express the sentiments of my countrymen when I say that we deeply sympathise with our Most Gracious Sovereign Queen Victoria in the bereavement she has to our greatest sorrow sustained in the death of His Royal Highness the Prince Consort, a deep loss not only to Her Majesty but to all the nation at large, for the late lamented Prince was a man who had attached himself to all the British subjects in a pre-eminent degree. Deeply as we must deplore this calamity, still it is a source of great satisfaction to us to learn that Her Majesty has sustained the severe shock with great fortitude, and we most sincerely trust that our beloved Queen may yet be spared to reign for many years to come.

V. Resolution.—Proposed by W. B. Tristram Esq., seconded by Bomonjee Hormusjee, Wadia Esq.

"That the best thanks of the meeting be given to the Chairman for his able conduct in the Chair."

The meeting broke up at 5 P. M.

BOMBAY GEOGRAPHICAL SOCIETY.

SESSION 1861-62.

Fifth Meeting, January 16th 1862.

THE Ordinary Monthly Meeting of the Bombay Geographical Society was held in their Rooms, Town Hall, on Thursday, the 16th instant, at half-past 4 P. M. President—Captain W. C. Barker, I. N., Vice-President in the chair; Narayen Dinanathjee, Esq.; Rao Saheb Vishvanath Narayen Mundlik, Dr. G. Birdwood, Esq. Atmaram Pandoorung; Lieut. G. T. Robinson, I. N.; Mungaldass Nuthoobhoy, Esq. J. E. C. Pryce Esq.; Munmohundass Davidass, Esq.: General G. Le-Grand Jacob, C. B., and D. J. Kennelly, Esq., Secretary.

Member proposed.—Lieut. W. L. Searle, I. N. proposed by the Secretary and Seconded by Lieut. G. T. Robinson, I. N.

Donations.—The following donations were laid before the Society for which the best thanks of the society were directed to be given to the donors :—

1. Abstracts of the Papers printed in the Philosophical Transactions of the Royal Society of London from 1800 to 1854. Vols. I., II., III., IV., VI.—By the Royal Society, London.

2. Proceedings of the Royal Society Vol, XI., No. 43.— By the Royal Society.

3. The Journal of the Bombay Branch of the Royal Asiatic Society No. XXI., Vol. VI.—By the Society.

4. Report of the Bombay Chamber of Commerce for the year 1860-61.—By the Chamber of Commerce.

5. Meteorological and Meteorological Observations made at the Government Observatory, Bombay, in the year 1860.—By Government.

6. A Catalogue Raisonne of rare, valuable and curious books sold by Bernard Quaritch.

Letters read.—From Lieut. E. F. T. Fergusson, I. N., Superintendent Government Observatory, forwarding a copy of the Magnetical and Meteorological Observations made in the year 1860.

2. From Lieut. W. M. Pengelley, I. N., British Agent at Muscat, forwarding a bottle log of M. H. S. Elphinstone picked up, some day between the 8th August and the 6th September last, on the Mekran Coast at Rabbage, near the village of Mundsuny. The Secretary stated that this log had traversed a distance of 235 miles in an almost due northerly direction, but that very little value must be attached to the result, owing to the want of correct data.

General Le Grand Jacob having favoured the Society with some remarks on the remarkable surface formation of the Thurr district, the Secretary intimated to the Society the urgency of their nominating a member to join with himself as Secretary. He had felt his duties of late very heavy, and that he could no longer unaided carry on the work of the society as he would wish. He hoped the Society would select Dr. Birdwood to assist him. The Secretary alluded to the precedent of Drs. Buist and Heddle. The Vice-President trusted Dr. Birdwood would consent.

Dr. Birdwood stated that Mr. Kennelly had already spoken to him on the subject. His own duties were so heavy that he would have refused the request but for the circumstances under which it had been made. Mr. Kennelly had performed the duties of his office in such a satisfactory manner, however, that when he frankly came and represented to him that without aid he could no longer carry on the work of the Society as hitherto, he felt the request was one he could not refuse, however reluctant he might be to yield to it. Of course if the Society appointed him Joint Secretary he would be duly sensible of the honour.

Dr. Birdwood was then unanimously elected Joint-Secretary and the meeting adjourned to Thursday, February 20th, 1862.

THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THE BOMBAY AUXILIARY BIBLE SOCIETY.

THE annual meeting of the Bombay Auxiliary to the British and Foreign Bible Society was held in the Town Hall yesterday at 5 P. M., H. W. Reeves in the chair. There was a large attendance of the friends and members of the Society. Amongst whom we noticed the Lord Bishop of Bombay, Reverends Messrs. Fletcher, Wilson, Colvin, Middleton, Spring, Carlile, Weatherhead, Harding, Bowen, Gilder, Robertson, Captains Chitty, Akenhead, Messrs. Boswell Kennelly, Lindsay, Vitters Bentley, etc. etc. The meeting having been opened with prayer by the Lord Bishop, the Rev. J. E. Carlile, one of the Secretaries, read the Report for the past year, the greater portion of which we give below :—

"The season has again returned when it is the duty of your committee to give an account of its stewardship. It belongs to us thus to report more especially the proceedings and progress of this Auxiliary; yet we may be allowed here to express how great a privilege we esteem it as a body connected with the British and Foreign Bible Society to feel that we have an interests in all its extensive operations, that we are one among the many all associated in an enterprize no less than the dissemination in all lands of the Holy Scriptures. The interests attaching to the mission and labours of the British and Foreign Bible Society continues from year to year undiminished. Which of the Society's labours is of more benefit to Christiaity an institution like this, did it accomplish nothing more in these days of fearful reproof and sceptical doubt regarding the inspiration of the Bible, than to form a centre around which all might rally whatever their ecclesiastical diversities as identified with the authority and supremacy of the Holy Scriptures. Another circumstance which affords fresh interest to the operations of the Bible Society is the wonderful course of Divine Providence opening up, year by year, new and wide doors of usefulness. Thus the past year has witnessed a wonderful extension in the circulation of the Scriptures in Italy. In Russia, too, the Greek Synod, so long hostile, now consecrates its press to the printing of large editions of the Bible. In Austria also the Concordat has lost its power to exclude the introduction of the Word of God, and in Germany where unsanctitified criticism so long engaged in fierce war with the inspiration of Scripture, an eager thirst for the Bible increases among its millions year by year. Nor are we to close our hope that our country nearer these shores, the Island of Madagascar, the days of its cruel persecutions are ended, and the Word of God shall have now free course and be glorified. When we associate with these cheering events in Providence, the outpouring of the Holy Spirit witnessed in so many lands and authenticated by so numerous and intelligent testimonies, we are encouraged to anticipate that this Word, of God, which is the sword of the Spirit, shall be increasingly the powerful instrument of conversion and the means of hastening on those times when the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of God, as the waters cover the sea.

"Your Committee has satisfaction in reporting that there has been a considerable increase in the circulation of the Scriptures by this Auxliary during the yast year. The Parent Society has, as you are aware, repeatedly urged this question of the extension of our issues on the publication of this Auxiliary. We are thankful to be enabled to state that our circulation of the Bible, in whole and in portions, compared with 1860 or 1859 amounts in the former instance to somewhat less than double, while in the latter it exceeds that proportion. Various circumstances will be stated in this Report which partially explain this enlargement. Your Committee have no doubt that making allowance for them, the increase shows progress. We desire, at the same time, to repeat what has been already stated by this, and, we believe, by other Auxiliaries of the Bible Society in India, that the increased circulation of the Holy Scriptures must mainly depend upon the progress of vernacular education. In this cause generally we must thes feel deeply interested especially in the education afforded in the missionary schools. In the Western Presidency, even with the recent efforts of Government, the proportion attending schools is calculated at less than 1 per cent. and it is estimated that from 2 to 3 per cent. alone of the existing population are able to read.

It cannot, then be expected, that the annual issues of this Auxiliary shall be large; although even within such limitations as have been stated, were there a thirst for the Word of Life, the circulation would be considerably increased. This, indeed, may suggest to us that for progress in our efforts we depend upon Him who hath the residue of the Spirit, and upon earnest importunate prayer—"I will yet for this be enquired of by the house of Israel to do it for them."

Your Committee have to record with deep regret the death of Rev. Charles Green, one of their members, during the past year. The following extract minute dated 3rd September 1861, refers to this mournful event :

"The Secretary, Mr. Carlile, brought under the consideration of the committee the lamented death of the Rev. Charles Green, A. M., one of its members. The Committee resolved to record their sense of the loss which this Auxiliary has sustained in the removal of one, who had already evinced during the short period of his connexion with this Auxiliary so deep interest in its prosperity, and from whose counsels and active cooperation they had anticipated in the future much valuable support."

Two others of their number have been called away from Bombay in consequence of a change in their official duties; and they lament to add that the last mail has brought the mournful intelligence of the death of one of these, Brigadier G. H. Robertson, C. B.

The amount received during the past year in subscriptions and donations was Rs. 3,426-4-6. This sum is less than that of the previous year by Rs. 344-13-6. The Committee regret this decrease while expressing their gratitude for what has been received. The diminution is chiefly owing to the absence from the country of several of the oldest and most liberal donors. They are grateful, however, to notice that the number of subscribers is not diminishing. Towards the close of the past year, the Committee resolved to originate a new method of raising subscriptions by collecting cards. The success that has followed these, encourages them to hope that during the present year they may be able at least to maintain their former rate of subscription.

There has been, a greater decrease than the above in the amount realized by sale of Scriptures, which is to be attributed partly to fewer copies having been sold in the past than in the preceding year; and partly to the half price at which many of those sold were given to schoolboys and natives. The amount received up to 31st December 1861, by sale of Scriptures in Bombay, and from the subordinate Depots, was Rs. 1,878-2-4, or Rs. 588-13-10 less than in the previous year.

One feature observable in connexion with the sales during the past year is the increase in the sale of copies of the Marathi New Testament. In 1860, 224 Marathi New Testaments had been sold only. In 1861, 558 were sold; or 334 more than in 1860. This is doubtless owing to the half price (two annas) taken for the book from schoolboys during the year.

The total revenue of the Society for the year ending 31st December 1861 including 436£ drawn on the Parent Society, amounted to Rs. 9,685-6-0; and the total expenditure was R. 8,634-9-8; of which amount, Rs. 3,221-9-0 were paid chiefly for the printing of Scriptures in the vernacular languages, and Rs. 1,944-4-10 on account of Colportage and the Misson to Arabia.

In the past year, 1,605 copies of Scripture—whole and in portions—in various languages, were received at the Society's Depot, Bombay. Of these 796 were forwarded by the Parent Society. London; 393 were received from the Irish Presbyterian Mission Press, Surat: 500 from the Exohange Press; and 6 from the North Inula Auxiliary. In addition to the above 796 copies of the Bible, the Parent Society sent last year to this Auxiliary, binding materials for the edition of the Auxiliary necessarily incurred in the promotion of its great object are increasing. The difficulty has been in some degree met by the generous aid of the Parent Society; but their Committee have at the same time, expressed the hope that their help might not mar local effort. Your Committee would then express their earnest trust that with the increasing prosperity of the Presidency and the more settled prospects of the Indian services, this Society may have found also its necessary resources that shall more adequately meet the necessities of its expenditure. Let subscribers consider if the scale of their liberality be proportional to the importance of this Society. Let each seek to enlarge the circle of those interested in its objects and labouring in prayers in its behalf. A Society such as this, based on broad Christian principles, labouring for an object identified with the missionary cause and the propagation of the Gospel, and enjoying, as we rejoice to say, this Auxiliary, this day, does, the cordial and warm support of the representatives of all the Protestant Churches in the Presidency, deserves well at the hand of all who appreciate the Bible as the blessed source of all light, peace, and consolation, to the souls of men.

The Lord Bishop in an appropriate speech moved the first resolution :—

That the Report of which an abstract has now been read, be adopted as the report of this Society and published under the direction of the Committee.

It was seconded by the Rev. Mr. Spring, and carried unanimously. The next resolution, moved by the Rev. R. Stothert and seconded by the Rev. Mr. Weatherhead was as follows :—

That while the insidious forms of error now prevailing call on all Christians earnestly to defend the authority and inspiration of the Holy Scriptures, the openings afforded in Divine Providence for the dissemination of the Bible together with the outpouring of the Holy Spirit already vouchsafed afford cause to thank God and take courage.

It was likewise carried unanimously.

The third resolution proposed by the Rev. W. Middleton, seconded by Rev. J. Wilson, and carried without a dissentient voice :—

That this meeting recognizes the duty of prayer for the Divine blessing upon all the operations of this Auxiliary and especially upon the plan adopted during the past year of endeavouring to extend the circulation of the Holy Scriptures in this Presidency.

The next resolution proposed by the Rev. C. Harding and seconded by T. H. Bentley, Esq. :—

That the following gentlemen be the office-bearers of this Auxiliary for the current year and that Mr. Kennelly and Captain Chitty be requested to audit the accounts for the past year.

It was passed unanimously.

Patron.—The Right Rev. Lord Bishop of Bombay.

President.—The Hon'ble H. W. Reeves, C.S.

Vice-Presidents.—Commodore G. G. Wellesley, I.N., Brigadier Sir C. Stuart, K.C.B., and Lieut.-Colonel Phayre.

Committee.—Captain W. T. Chitty, Captain J. T. Annesley, W. F. Hunter, D. J. Kennelly, T. H. Bentley, A. Johnstone, A. Brown, W. F. Stearns, Esqs., and Dr. Grierson.

Secretaries.—Reverends J. S. S. Robertson, J. E. Carlile, D. Macpherson, Mr. V. A. De Cunha, Assistant Secretary.

After this the Chairman delivered a very suitable and touching address, anticipating that this might be the last meeting of the Bible Society he would attend in India, and expressing his earnest wish for its continued progress and prosperity.

The thanks of the meeting were voted to the Chairman.

The proceedings of the evening were concluded with the Benediction by the Lord Bishop.

(BEFORE A FULL COURT.)

Richard Parson, vs. The Peninsular and Oriental Steam Navigation Company.

Mr. Anstey, instructed by Dr. Dallas, appeared for the plaintiff.

Mr. Westropp, instructed by Mr. Crawford, for the defendant.

Mr. Anstey stated that the plaintiff was an engineer in the employ of the P. and O. Company, and the plaint stated the action to be of special assumpsit and set forth an agreement dated 2nd April 1855, whereby plaintiff engaged to serve the defendants as fourth engineer on any of the Indian or China Seas, whether at Bombay or Calcutta or any other port as the Superintendent of the Company might direct, in consideration whereof the defendants should pay him £12 per month, this agreement to be certain for six months, at the end of which period, three months' notice is to be given by plaintiff should he leave the service or join any other ship. It also contained a proviso that after three years' satisfactory service plaintiff would be provided with a free passage to England. On the 1st May 1860 plaintiff was promoted to the position of second Engineer and continued in that station till his discharge. The plaint then averred that defendants in breach of the agreement wrongfully dismissed plaintiff without notice and license on the 4th September 1860 and refused to pay him his wages from the 14th August 1860, by which he sustained great hardship and remained unemployed for four months. The defendants pleaded non-assumpsit and traversed his willingness to remain in service, their causing him to leave service, their refusing to employ him, and his performance of duty; the other pleas were that plaintiff misconducted himself by being idle and negligent, and that he wrongfully absented himself without leave and notice. In the bill of particulars the plaintiff claimed damages to the amount of Rs. 845, being twenty-one day's wages, and three months' wages for want of notice. The learned counsel stated the leading facts of the case, which were that at the time of his discharge plaintiff was serving as second engineer on board the Pekin. He was on board of her on return voyage from China in July 1860, and from being constantly exposed to currents of cold air in the engine-room, he was treated on board for rheumatism. His malady having been treated very lightly it took a very serious aspect and he was rendered unfit for duty. On arriving in Bombay he was examined by the Company's Superintending Surgeon, Dr. Manisty, and he was treated for neuralgia which, according to the surgeon's advice required that he should remain on shore. In pursuance of this medical advice plaintiff applied to Mr. Nicholson, the Superintending engineer for leave to remain on shore, but was told that if he did not go on board the Pekin on duty, he would have to go to England, to which plaintiff replied "very well, Sir." At this interview Mr. Nicholson charged plaintiff with having served a similar trick while on board the Ottawa. Subsequently plaintiff wrote a note to Mr Napier, Chief Engineer of the Pekin, asking him to find a successor while he temporarily remained on shore for recovery of his health. Plaintiff was then while on a visit to Dr. Manisty informed by that gentleman that he had received a note from Mr. Macaulay, the Acting Superintendent of the Company, that he, plaintiff, would have to go on board on duty. The Pekin in the meantime sailed on an outward voyage. After some days plaintiff on partially recovering his health reported himself for duty, but was told that he was dismissed for absenting himself from duty without leave. In the correspondence which took place between plaintiff and Mr. Macaulay the latter stated that plaintiff was granted a discharge at his own request, which fact was inconsistent with one of the pleas that he was dismissed for misconduct. The learned Counsel in refutation of the charge of insubordination attributed to plaintiff, read certificates of good conduct and service given to him by Captain Bowen of the Ganges and Mr. Glover chief engineer. As to the discharge the learned Counsel urged that plaintiff was not properly discharged, as he was prevented from joining the service, and under the Merchant Shipping Act the discharge was invalid for not being made before a Shipping Master.

The de bene esse examination of Dr. Manisty was then read by the Prothonotary. He Witness stated that on the morning of the 14th August 1860 the articles of the Pekin having then expired, he asked plaintiff to sign fresh articles, and plaintiff replied he would not do so until he saw Mr. Nicholson. That on his return from interview with Mr. Nicholson, plaintiff said that he had been told by Mr. Nicholson either to sign the articles or to go to England. Plaintiff then left for his books and articles, saying he was going on shore. Plaintiff also took his discharge ticket from the purser. Witness never gave plaintiff leave to go on shore on more than one occasion.

John Nicholson, Superintending Engineer of the Dockyard of the P. and O. Company, examined.—I recollected the return of the Pekin from China in August 1860. On the 14th August plaintiff came to him and said that he was advised by the doctor to remain on shore. I told him if he was sick he had better take a medical certificate and go to England. The Peninsular and Oriental, met the demand for transport without material interruption of their packet services. It is most obvious that the fleets of these three Companies could never have been in the state of completeness and efficiency to relieve the necessities of the time, but for their ability, through the past patronage of Government, and the steadiness of that continuance, to make the large and regular outlay to which I have before referred." For that their own resources would not have enabled them to do this is sufficiently plain from the position of two of these Companies, the Royal Mail and the Peninsular and Oriental, in 1853 (as may be verified by returns furnished to Admiralty when their yearly joinings including their subsidies of £469,000 and deducting the working expenses for the year, amounted to no more than £359,600; shewing that, without subsidies there would have been an excess of expenditure over income, of £106,400, and of course no surplus for repairs renewal or dividends.

If our peace policy is to continue to rely on subsidies and live upon those of the French, to starve our own steamers off the line, we shall find that when our ally's "idea" is matured, the honor of France will have to be avenged at Chandernagore, and a line of splendid steamers on this side of the isthmus of Suez will be ready to carry arms and ammunition for the French army. The voyage from Saigon will land in India in a few weeks, while twenty-one days will suffice to transport to Calcutta the ten thousand workmen on Mr. Lesseps's canal, in whose not un-accustomed hands we are very much mistaken if bayonets will not be found rather than picks and spades within a few weeks after the declaration of war between France and England. Are we to remain blind in the East while our volunteers show how wide awake we are in England? Instead of depriving the P & O Co. of any part of its subsidies we should increase it as part of the national defences. We should pay them so largely as to render it impossible for the French to compete with us in carrying either goods or passengers, instead of allowing them a start which will enable them to attract to themselves the whole of the carrying trade of the Eastern seas in time of peace, and to be masters of all the transports in time of war. The subsidy allowed by France to the steamers of the Messageries Imperiales is, we believe, sixteen shillings a mile. How can it be expected that the P & O Co. receiving only four and sixpence from our Government will successfuly compete with them?

THE ITALIAN PARLIAMENT.

(From the Times, Dec. 25.)

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

TURIN, DEC. 22.

The Minister Count Bastogi gave yesterday his statement of the financial condition of the Italian Kingdom. He delivered not a speech but a lecture, and although MSS. are, with good reason, unpopular in the House of Deputies, yet, as a financier deals in numbers, not phrases, he might be fairly allowed to read at least the technical part of his speech.

Count Bastogi is a man of smart talents and a considerable acuteness of perception. He has been a successful banker, the builder of his own fortune, uncommonly apt to take care of "Number One." Where he to manage public affairs as he has proved himself qualified for the handling of his own privat business, no doubt the Italian nation could boast e shrewd and skilful steward. The different schemes of taxation and the framing of a budget might perchance be a little beyond the sphere of his ordinary acquirements, but he has no lack of efficient assistants in his special department, and he has shown tact in the late discussion of the registration tax, when, although he might rely on the support of his Under-Secretary Scialoia, who is a member of the Chamber, he withdrew altogether from the arena, and left the defence of his highly elaborate Bill to the charge of M. de Choquet, a Sicilian lawyer, whom he placed on the Ministerial bench as a Royal Commissary. Bastogi himself is not deficient in eloquence, keen in repartee, and rather apt to indulge in calp-trap. His manners are studiously courteous; he evinces an eager empressement to keep friends with men of all ranks and parties, and take an immense trouble to gain popularity. His face is wild and wan, almost haggard, with over-work. He is always in a hurry, yet many of his hours are taken up with the private discussion of matters which should be the theme of public debate. His aim seems to be to win partisans over to his views, one by one. He is rich, splendid, hospitable; benevolent, goodnatmoured, witty; his complexion is pale, almost earthy, slightly freckled? but he makes up for his melancholy hue, lack-lustre eyes, and unhealthy look by great volubility and liveliness of expression. His age borders upon five-and-fifty.

The Minister began by an enumeration of the laws proposed by him for the reorganization of the Finance, some of which, as the creation of the Great Book of the Public Debt, the Exchequer Court, &c., are already sanctioned by Parliament, and others, such as that of the Cassee di Depositie Prestiti, and for the Banche di Circolazione, &c., are ready for discussion He then passed to his exposition of the state of the Budget.

In the Budget for 1861, he said, the ordinary expenses rose to 612,961, 121£. 87c. The ordinary revenue was 456,568,213£. 58c. The extraordinary expenses were 192,189,772£.; the extraordinary revenue was 34,301,823£. 23c. The ordinary expense exceeded the ordinary revenue by 156,392,908£. 28c.; the extraordinary expenses exceeded the extraordinary revenues by 157,878,948£. 99c.; so that the deficit was altogether 314,271,857£. 28c.

This deficit was further increased by 77,565, 352£. 66c., of which 60,000,000£. were voted for Public Works. 10,649,000£. for the War, 6,500,000£. for the Marine Departments. Further sums were granted by Royal decrees of 5,300,000£. for Public Works, 19,000, 000£. for War, 700,000£. for the Marine, 1,912,500£. for the interest of new Neapolitan Rentes, 17,872£. for six months' interest of the new loan, and 770,000£. for sundry expenses; finally, for extraordinary expenses in Sicily, 16,985,957£.

There was, however, a diminution of ordinary expenses in Sicily to the amount of 1,096,091£., of 12,431,432£. consequent upon the law on the public debt, of 15,000,000£. for the railway along the Ligurian shore, of 50,000,000£. for the railway from Napales to the Adriatic.

After a few more details concerning a diminution in extraordinary expenses, the Minister thus summed up:—The Budget of 1861 presents a deficit, in its ordinary department, of 160,922,459£., and in the extraordinary of 239,486,048£.; altogether a deficit of 400,408,507£.

The deficit in 1862 will be 317,000,000£.—200,000,000£. for the ordinary, 107,000,000£. extraordinary.

The ordinary revenue will be 482,000,000£.; in 1861 it was only 459,000,000£., showing an in crease of 23,000,000£. The extraordinary revenue, which in 1861 was 8,000,000£., will rise to 59,000,000£. in 1862. Hence an increase of 31,000,000£., and, putting together the ordinary and extraordinary, a joint increase of 62,000,000£.

The ordinary expenditure for 1862 will be 693,000,000£.; as in 1861 it was only 620,000,000£., we shall have an increase of 73,000,000£. But the extraordinary, which was 247,000,000£. in 1861, will only be about 147,000,000£. in 1862; hence a saving of 100,000,000£.

The Minister then detailed the different sources of the increased ordinary revenue—Customs, Excise, salt duties, &c.; the extension of the war tax, the public lottery, the sale of Royal domains, State railways, &c. The Home Ministry promises an economy of 800,000£.; that of Public Instruction a saving of 665,000£. The increase of extraordinary revenue will arise chiefly from the sale of national property, to the amount of 18,300,000£. He next pointed out the causes of the increased ordinary expenditure—the interest of the 500,000,000£. loan, &c. For the extraordinary expenditure he assigned 23,000,000£. to the War Department, 2,600,000£. to the Ministry of Grace and Justice, 10,000,000£. to Public Works, 6,000,000£. to the Home-office, 765,000£. to Agriculture and Commerce, 1,000,000£. to the Marine. This latter branch of public expenditure, as compared with the outlay of 1861, is due to the War Department to the amount of 47,500, 000£., and to other departments for minor sums.

The Minister then recapitulated as follows :—

The deficit of 1861 was 400,000,000£., that of 1862 will be 217,000,000£.; for the two years 717,000,000£. This deficit will be partly filled up by 35,000,000£. withdrawn from the sale of Neapolitan Rentes; by 23,880,000£ withdrawn from the sale of Rentes on the Great Book of Sicily; and, finally by the loan of 500,000,000£. for 1861. That will still leave a deficit of 159,000,000£.

To fill up this final deficit, the Minister relies on the new registration tax, which ought to yield an increase of 50,000,000£.; on a new tariff on salt and tobacco, yielding 5,000,000£.; on an extension of the tobacco monopoly to some part of the kingdom now free from it, adding 4,000,000£ or 5,000,000£.; a new tax on the conveyance of passengers, and on armed velocità, valued at 4,000,000£.; finally, an equi-distribution of the property-tax, leading to a gain for the revenue of 20,000,000£.; then a new tax on "moveable" wealth, yielding 30,000,000£. All these new sources of revenue will supply 139,000,000£., and if all the new laws cannot be enacted before the end of the quarter of 1862, the State will be able to provide with Treasury bonds (Buoni del Tesoro), of which, it is well that Europe should be aware of the fact, the Italian kingdom has only 36,000,000£. in circulation.

Twenty millions are still to be made up for. But France in 1814 had to pay several millions of war contributions, and to rid herself of an arrear of 650,000,000£., yet by the mere imposts of registration and stamp tax, of patents, excise, post and conveyances, she raised her revenue by 200,000,000£. in little more than 14 years. Add to this that France, who in 1830 had an income of about 986,000,000£., raised it in 1861 to 1,849,000,000£.; so that in spite of the exhaustion resulting from a series of wars and revolutions, she raised her budget, and with it her prosperity, to thrice its amount.

Now, Italy does not issue forth from a great disaster, as France did in 1815. She is not worn out in men or riches; her power is not on the wane, but on the increase. She has not millions to pay for her ransom, or for the expenses of foreign armies. Italy, reconstituted in a single State, raised to real existence as a nation, cannot fail to multiply by hundreds the sources of her well-being. She can have no fear of her being powerless to bring her budget to a par.

The Minister then dwelt on the results of the abolition of the old tariff in Naples and Sicily. He proved that the importation of goods into Naples has risen to thrice the amount of what it would have been under the old tariff; as the receipts of the Customs, which would have been only 3,700,000£., exceeded 12,000,000£. The Italian tariff was established in Naples in October, 1860. In that year and month the revenue was 997,000£.; in October, 1861, 1,196,000£.; in November, 1860, 1,300,000£.; in November, 1861, 1,500,000. The same or even better results have been obtained in Sicily.

He then glanced at the possibility of retrenchment in the public expenditure; then dwelt on the huge capital possessed in Italy in national property and State railways. They amount to no less than 400,000,000£. to 500,000,000£.

He concluded by a warm appeal to Italian patriotism, of whom he demanded sacrifices in money to be undergone no less cheerfully than those she was ready and resolved to pay its debt to the country in blood. "The mothers of one part of Italy," he said, "never asked those from other parts how many children they had sent into the field of battle, because the common object of them all was to secure victory. To-day we are all called upon to bear sacrifices of any other sort; we must bear them without invidious comparisons till all the burdens are laid with equal hand and the several provinces bear their share of the public benefits."

He went on for some time longer in this sentimental strain of eloquence, which, whatever effect it may have on his Italian hearers, will not make any important impression on foreign readers.

He added that the budget of the several departments were all in the press, and would be forthcoming presently.

The anxiety arising from the difficulties Baron Ricasoli meets with in the completion of his Cabinet is increasing and spreading. The Opinione, a semi-official organ, as it used to be, has a singular leading article, in which, after informing the readers that Ponza di San Martino had ended by a decided refusal of the Portfolio of Home Affairs, the paper throws out the broadest hints that mere fact that out of so large a majority of public men devoted to his cause Baron Ricasoli cannot find one to share with him the responsibilities of office ought to be looked upon as a vote of want of confidence in his administration. The article of the Opinione has created a deep, sorrowful, alarming sensation. Has the journal ratted, and is it talking at random? Or is it the Government that is announcing its intention to resign, or making a last appeal to its friends to come to its rescue, without which its retirement is inevitable? I incline to adopt the former supposition. The journal has now-a-days hardly any connexion with the Government.

The Bill for the authorization or discretionary financial powers to the Ministers, so as to enable them to carry on the Government during the first quarter of 1862, was voted at an extraordinary night sitting last evening. The obnoxious clause respecting the land-tax in Lombardy had been withdrawn by Ministers. The votes were 202 against 34. Crispi and many of the Left voted for the Ministers, as they felt that the whole machinery of the Administration could not be suffered to come to a standstill for want of the necessary funds.

The main cause of dissension between the Garibaldian and the Mazzinian party at Genoa, to which I alluded in my yesterday's letter, appears to be a contemplated expedition to Rome, for which the so-called Comitato di Proveedimento pressed into service the residue of the Garibaldi fund for the million of muskets. Macchi, Sirtori, Bixio; and the other true friends of Garibaldi, disapproved the wild scheme. Savi, Campanella, and other Mazzinians pure sang, parted from the former, and joined into a new "unitarian association." Both parties have sent their envoys to Caprera, with a hope of winning Gar

ADVANTAGES OFFERED BY THIS SOCIETY.

1.—The profits are declared in each year, on the second Wednesday in May, from and after which date all persons assured for the whole term of life on the participating scale, and on whose Policies six complete annual or twelve complete half yearly original premiums have been paid, are entitled to participate in the profits of succeeding years in either of the modes provided by the Deed of Settlement, viz., either by a reduction of the annual or half-yearly premiums for the current year as they fall due, or as an annual addition to the sum assured by way of a bonus. Each assurer, on his first becoming entitled to participate in the profits, has the option of selecting either of the foregoing methods, and three months from the date of declaration of the profits is allowed for his making that selection, which, however, when once determined on, cannot be altered in after years.

2.—One-fifth of the ascertained profits of the five past years is divided between the Policyholders and Shareholders—three-fourths to the former, and one-fourth to the latter; the remaining four-fifths are set apart to enter into the average to be struck on the next succeeding year.

3.—The following table will show the operation of the reduction allowed by the division of profits for 1860 which is equivalent to 45 per cent. on the current annual premium of all Policies entitled to participation :—

Age next birth-day when Policy was issued.	Date of Policy previous to the 2nd day of Wednesday in May.	Sum assured.	Original Premium.	Reduction.	Annual Premium Payable after deduction.
		Co.'s Rs.	Rs.	Rs. a. p.	Rs. a p
20	May 1855	10,000	420	189 0 0	231 0 0
30	"	10,000	400	216 0 0	264 0 0
40	"	10,000	520	234 0 0	286 0 0
50	"	10,000	740	333 0 0	407 0 0
60	"	10,000	1,030	463 8 0	566 8 0

4.—From the foregoing explanations it will be seen that the benefits arising from a participation in the profits are actually proportioned (when a reduction of the premium is selected) to the periods when the seventh annual, or thirteenth and fourteenth half-yearly premiums fall due. In the case, however, of a Bonus to the sum assured being selected, an equivalent sum will be added to the policy for the current year, being such an amount as the reduction in the premium would purchase as a single payment.

5.—Separate tables for assurances without participation in profits, both Civil and Military, have been adopted for the whole of Life at reduced rates, for such persons as may prefer a lower rate of premium to participation in the general profits.

6.—The Directors have recently determined on permitting the issue of Policies in India for the whole term of Life on the non participating scale, on the principle of receiving the premiums monthly, three Months however, are to be granted on certain conditions, viz., that on the first issue of the Policy six months premium shall be paid in advance, and thenceforth monthly, and that in the event of persons assured returning to Europe, quarterly or monthly payments will cease, and the premium to be payable at the English rates in advance yearly. And although the Board will allow 28 days grace on Policies paying monthly premiums, yet it is to be clearly understood that if those days of grace be exceeded, the Policy will be absolutely forfeited, and cannot be renewed under any circumstances whatever. It is also determined that in no case will an assurance be granted beyond the age of 60.

7.—In all cases of reduction to the English rates, the Policies are to be subject to all the regulations and conditions affecting English Policies.

8.—When application is made for assuring a life subject to more than ordinary hazard, an augmented premium will be charged proportionate to the increased risk, the rate of which will be regulated after strict attention to justice between the Society and the Assured, according to circumstances.

9.—On the return of persons (whose lives have been insured at Indian rates) to Europe, either for a temporary or permanent residence, and without reference to the state of health, they will be entitled to have their future premium reduced to the English rates, corresponding with the age at which the assurance was first effected, if they shall have given at the Head Office in London notice in writing of their arrival, and such reduction shall commence with the payment of the first Premium, which shall become due next after the receipt of such written notice. Their Policies must be forwarded to the Office, to receive an endorsement, prohibiting their departure from Europe without the previous written consent of the Directors, and all such Assurances will be void if the parties whose lives have been assured shall go beyond the limits of Europe unless the said permission shall have been first obtained, and such premium paid, as in the opinion of the Directors will correspond with the extra risk incurred.

When parties assured at the Indian rates return to England, they are required to give notice in writing of their arrival, at the office in London, and in no case will their Policies be reduced to the English rates until they next fall due after the receipt of such written notice.

In the case of participating Policies, the profits are allowed on the English rate of Premium whereas Indian assurers can continue their Policies in England on most favorable terms.

Parties assured in Rupees in India, who may determine on paying their future Premiums in England, will be required to pay them at the fixed rate of exchange of 2s. per Rupee; and in the event of such Assurance becoming a claim payable in England, the sum assured will be paid at the same fixed rate of exchange of 2s. per Rupee.

10.—The parent Institution being in London, with a similar establishment in Calcutta for granting Policies, Premiums, as well as claims, are payable in either country, at the option of the Policy holder. The appointment of Sub-committees at Madras and Bombay with power to grant Policies, affords similar facilities to persons residing at either of the said Presidencies.

11. All Policies becoming claims on the Society, will be discharged within three months after satisfactory proof of the death and cause of death of the assured shall have been furnished to the Director in London or Calcutta.

12.—The Directors of the Indian Branch of the Society are empowered to treat for the purchase of Policies, for the whole term of life on which premium shall have been paid for a period of not less than five years, or to advance, if required, on such Policies, by way of Loan, two-thirds of the estimated value.

13.—Medical Referees are remunerated by the Society, by a fee of Sixteen Rupees on proposals for assurance not under Co.'s Rs. 2,500 :—but for any less sum the fee to be settled by the Applicant.

14.—Tables, Blank Forms, and other particulars requisite to enable persons to effect assurances, may be had on application to the Agents.

The rates of Premium on Term Policies, and Assurances for the whole of life without participation, are now reduced, by order of the London Board, Twenty per cent., and will be found below those of any other office in India.

For Assurance for the whole Term of Life with participation in the profits of the Society, the rates remain unaltered, but the reduction after the expiration of six years has hitherto amounted upon an average Fifty per cent. upon the original charge, and the success of the Universal leads the Directors to hope that the prospective results will be still more satisfactory.
